JOHN WALTER,

N. E. cor. Main & St. Clair sts., Frankfort, Ky.

When Henry Clay was asked when he enforcement of the laws. would be in favor of a dissolution of the Union

he answered, "Never, never, never!"] You ask me when I'd rend the scroll Our father's names are written o'er-When I would see our flag unroll
Its mingled stars and stripes no more

When with a worse than felon's hand, Or felon counsels, I would sever The Union of this glorious land— I answer, "Never, never, never!"

When ye can find in lawless might,
Where Carnage treads its crimson wayWhere burning cities gild the night,
Where cannon smoke obscure the day,
In towns-deserted, fields of ground
Abandoned by the faithful plow,
Security hope nease profound.

Security, hope, peace profound,
The blessing Heaven vouchsafes you now. Then, think ye, I would brook to see

The emblem we have loved so long Borne, piecemeal, o'er the distant sea, Torn trampled by a frenzied throng; Divided, measured, parcelled out, Tamely surrendered up forever To gratify a lawless rout

On yonder lone and lovely steep,
The sculptor's art, the builder's power,
A land-mark o'er the soldier's sleep
Have reared a lofty funeral tower; There it will stand until the river That rolls beneath shall cease to flow;

Ay, till that hill itself shall quiver

With Natures last convulsive three.

Of traitors-"Nover, never, never!"

Upon that column's marble case, Its shaft that soars into the sky, There still is room enough to trace
The list of millions yet to die:
And I would cover all its height
And breadth, before the hour of shame,
Till space should fail whereon to write Even the initials of a name.

Nay, I would haste to swell the ranks, Direct the fire or lead the way,
White battle swept the rifted ranks,
And bore the serried files away—
Fall bleeding in the doubtful strife Beneath the motto of my sires, And draw my latest breath of life, Before the Union flag expires.

Dissolve the Union! Nav, remove The last asylum that is known Where patriots find a brother's love,

And truth may shelter from a throne!
Give up our hopes of high renown,
The legacy our fathers will'd,
Tear our victorious eagles down, Before their mission is fufilled! Dissolve the Union! while the earth

Has yet a tyrant to be slain?
As well repress the lightnings birth, Or stop the heavings of the main! Dissolve the Union! God of Heaven We know too well how much it cost— A million bosoms shall be riven Before the golden link is lost!

Mrs. Gore.

The London Times says of this lady: Of her personal history but little is known to the public than that she was the wife of Charles Arthur Gore, of the First life-guards; that at the time of her death she had attain ed the age of sixty-one; and that she was the most brilliant women of her time, whose talk overflowed with epigram and jest, and whose most commonplace re marks were more witty than the best wit of others. Her literary career is better known although she departs from among us at a time when it is least appreciated. Her descriptions of fashionable life are not so highly estimated now as they were when that species of novel had a certain amount of originality, nor as they will be hereafter, when, through the mere lapse of time, her descriptions will attain somewhat of the dignity of historical pictures. For the moment we are tired of fashionable novels, and inclined, perhaps to underrate the great mis tress of the art. But if any one will sit down quietly to consider what Mrs. Gore has done, and how she has done it, he cannot escape having a very exalted opinion of her powers She has written from sixty to seventy differ ent works, extending to nearly two hundred volumes. Her various publications followed one another with inconceivable rapidity sometimes at the rate of a volume a month A catalogue of her books-most of them written at utmost speed-would fill this col umn. But the most remarkable point of all this fertility is that in the 200 volumes there is scarcely to be found one dull page. Mrs. Gore's wit was in exhaustible. It might not always be wit of the highest order, but it was cer tainly not that cheap wit which is obtained in any quantity from the torture of words Whether she wrote a poem or a play, a novel or a sketch, the composition was always above mediocrity. And then for the matter -it was interesting while it was new, and i will be interesting when it is old. Some future Macauley will turn to her pages for a perfect picture of life as we find it in the up per crust of society. Every phase of it which it was possible for a woman to handle, she has depicted with a minute fidelity which has all the merit of a first rate collection of pho tographs. Her works will often be referred

The 4th of March A. D. 1861.

This day completes the most disastrous Presidential term which it has ever been the fate of these United States to have witnessed; and although the President who is to be inaugurated to-day is looked upon with aver gust inspired by his predecessor is so thor to elect delegates. be a relief from the imbecile old man, who takes his departure for Wheatland to-day. There is nothing in all history more melancholy than the cortege which will wind its way from the White House, this 4th day of March. Not George III in his his old age, and in his blindness and with his reason gone, obstinacy and his folly; not Boabdil el Chico, as he stood upon the summit of the Alpuxarras and gave "the last sigh of the 387 voted. 2d. Bastrop, 769 voters; 153 vot Moor" toward the beautiful palaces of Gren-ed. 3d. Collin, 1,119 voters; 211 voted. 4th. ada which he had lost forever by his weakness; not even Lear, in the touching fiction of the singer of Avon, as he wanders forth in the pittiless storm from the home of his ingrate daughters, appeals more powerfully to the feelings of the philanthropist, than does the situation of the poor old man who this day leaves the chair he has so unworthily filled for the last four years. If he has a spark of sensibility left to his callous conscience, he must reflect upon the prosperity of the country upon his induction into office-a land smiling with peace and plenty; with coffers filled to repletion, and a credit commanding a high premium in all the markets of the world: with a commerce that whitened every sea with the richest argosies, and penetrated the most distant islands of ocean with its energy with harvests of such abundance as to feed and clothe the redundant millions of the old world; a peaceful refuge for the oppressed of every clime; with railroads sufficient to girdle the earth at the equator with an unbroken track, and telegraphs and schools and all the material prosperity with which Heaven ever blessed a bounteous land. Such is but a faint conception of the aspect of our country on that memorable 4th of March, 1857, that inaugurated the Presidency of James Buchanan; and such will his memory bring back to him as he gazes upon that magnificent Capitol which he may never see again, but which may yet be deluged in blood by fratricidal war caused if not by his treasonable designs, by his imbecility and weakness.

Let us by contrast see what is the condition of our beloved country on this other in- Hendrick, of this city. Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove - $131,029 00 of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by exper iment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints: —

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AF-FECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEU-RALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYS-PEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSE OR ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is ob-structed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation, of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES .- There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others, whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage, until they seem "native and to the manor born.

Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light or black hair, light beard and mustache; rather t may be looked on as a safeguard, intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise es-cape attention till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Head-aches; Anæmia and plethora are also affections ich frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic Headache is also very common, being usually dis-tinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!! HE SECOND VOLUME of the "KENTUCKY FAR-THE SECOND VOLUME of the "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agriculturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky, a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us one or more additional names for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid subscriptions, and send us one or more additional names for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would published ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased for the Second Volume, but is nothing like so large as it should be. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "Kentucky Farmer" will still be published monthy, in its present form of sixteen large quarte pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, pay able invariably in advance. As the small amon it charged for the paper will not justify the troub and expense of collecting subscriptions, no pape will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.
